Minutes from the September meeting were approved.

Paul Nelson did a presentation on the Sam Hamil Poetry Festival. The festival is to take place May 9-12, 2019. Locations will be the home of Sam Hamil and the Croatian Cultural Center. Planned events and readings will happen throughout the weekend. The Washington State Poet Laureate has been invited and poets from all over will be attending.

Terry and Lisa reported that they had great attendance on Saturday for the Preview show at the Depot. They also reported quite a few pieces sold.

Betsy and Lanny will set up a time to meet with Mary Snyder to plan out the next Call for Artists for the Depot Sculpture Park.

Zach is doing research on Light in the Alley.

Laura brought up revising the brochure. We will add this to our discussion.

Terry and Lisa reported that all is moving along and ready for the 98221 Studio Tour.

Hanging for the 98221 Gallery to be on December 5th or 6th. Lisa and Terry will work with the 98221 Studio Tour artists for participation in the 98221 Gallery. Mary will contact the current artists hanging in the 98221 Gallery to pick up their work.

Meeting adjourned at approximately 4:55.

The next regular meeting will be held on Wednesday, November 14, 2018 at 4:00 in the Library meeting room.
