Program Descriptions:

All programs are held in the library community meeting room unless otherwise noted.

Black Holes: Why We Care - Tuesday, July 2nd 6:30pm NASA@ My Library Science Series

Douglas Stanford, PhD, a theoretical physicist, AHS alumnus, and associate professor at Stanford, will explain why black holes force us to change the way we think about physics, where this new way of thinking has led, and where it might go in the future.

Mars the Last Frontier - Wednesday, July 10th 7:00pm NASA@ My Library Science Series

Scientists Karen McBride and Marcello Coradini share a wealth of knowledge gained from working with NASA and the European Space Agency (ESA) respectively. Experts on space missions and Mars specifically, McBride and Coradini will present the challenges of exploring the dynamic red planet.

Planetarium Experience - Saturday, July 20th 12:00 - 3:00pm @ Anacortes Senior Center, 1701 22nd St NASA@ My Library Science Series

Join librarians and educators from the Seattle Pacific Science Center for a planetarium experience for ages 5-18. Families will learn about the moon landing and build paper rockets with the Anacortes Robotics teams. There is limited space for the three showings, so plan to arrive by 11:45, 12:45, or 1:45. Admission is free on a first come, first served basis.

Celebrating 50 Years: To the Moon & Back Again - Wednesday, July 24th 7:00pm NASA@ My Library Science Series

Join Bob Scott, President of the Island County Astronomical Society, to explore the historic race to space and the cultural impact of the first moon landing.

Why Are All the Trees Dying? Forest Health in the Puget Sound - Tuesday, July 30th 6:30pm NASA@ My Library Science Series

Associate professor at Washington State University, Kevin W. Zobrist presents why trees are dying and how to recognize when there is a problem on your property. Learn about insects, diseases, drought, and what you should and should not do to increase tree resilience and mitigate impacts.

Harry and the Potters Concert - Wednesday, July 17th 6:00pm @ Causland Park, 710 N Ave

Harry Potter fans and music lovers unite! Join us for a FREE concert with the originators of wizard rock. Harry and the Potters will play songs from their recently released album, Lumos. They are joined by PNW indie artist Kimya Dawson. Local vendors Frugal Dog and Lopez Island Creamery will have hot dogs and ice cream for sale. Anacortes Parks Department will host Quidditch before the show, beginning around 5:15pm.

Second Sunday Jazz: Marina Christopher - Sunday, July 14th 2:00 - 3:30pm @ Heart of Anacortes, 1014 4th St

Marina Christopher is a versatile, up and coming artist in the Seattle music scene. She is an accomplished vocalist, earning a spot as a finalist in the 2017 Seattle-Kobe Female Jazz Vocalist contest and performing at Dimitriou's Jazz Alley, and a special mention at the same event in 2018. Her skill, cheery nature, and work ethic keep her busy as a freelance bassist in many musical styles.

Gaming Night - Tuesday, July 16th 5:00 - 7:00pm

Join us for an all ages gaming night with board games, Nintendo Switch, traditional games, and more! Bring your own decks for Magic the Gathering or grab your DM for Dungeons and Dragons. Challenge your friends to a Smashbros showdown. Fit a few pieces into a puzzle. Get your game on!

Library Book Club - Monday, April 22nd 7:00pm

April is Author Month. Read any work by Anne Morrow Lindbergh and share with us. For more information, call Jackie Boss at 360-299-8067.
