

ANACORTES YACHT CLUB ESTABLISHED 1891

Early Anacortes residents enjoyed cruising and racing throughout the area. The Anacortes Yacht Club was there from the start; AYC is the second oldest yacht club in Washington State.

The Anacortes Yacht Club sponsors youth sailing programs and adult racing and cruising events for members. The clubhouse on Cap Sante hosts numerous AYC social activities and is also used by community groups.

Old refinery towers form the horizon of March Point - named for early AYC member, Thomas Marchessault, club member since 1906. Tidalgate Bay.
